

Travel of Divergent Roads

time to go through the door
of the Shadow
two-door-Dodge
vehicle of choice
for choice metaphors
destination left
everyone goes right
eventually same
but half the journey
is the fun in getting there

population one half, put your left-brain in take your left-brain out view the world from a different angle a cute angel is always best and right but left
to their own journey

hands and feet
till complete
stop
